The information provided will be used for the purpose of administering iklub activities only. The approval and renewal of membership will be subject to the sole discretion of the iklub. The iklub reserves the right to change the terms of membership and its benefits without prior notice.

IKLUB CODE OF GOOD CONDUCT

All sensitive information/experience shared by members of the iklub will be considered confidential and should not be shared with anyone outside the club without a written consent of the person who originally shared the information.

The results of the iklub activities (developed tools, methods, etc.) will remain the property of the iklub members. Usage outside the members ' respective organizations will have to be approved by the iklub review committee.

Members who decide to use deliverables of the iklub in their organization will be expected to share their experience/feedback/lessons learned back with the members.

In case of authorized diffusion (after consent of the iklub committee), the results and findings of the iklub will have to be given FULL CREDITS to the people and companies which have contributed to these results/findings.

Members are expected to be COMMITTED to the iklub and are expected to be PREPARED when they commit to do something so they don't waste the time and resources of the other members.

Members are expected to COMPLETE the work/study/project that they have started for the satisfaction of the iklub members.

Members that will not respect these rules will have their MEMBERSHIP REVOKED without any refund.

I agree with the terms and the conditions of the iklub
